The Solemnity of All Saints

1 November 2020 at 11.00am

*To all friends and loved ones who are praying with us online:
We welcome you to join us in this celebration of the Eucharist.*

We are grateful for your prayerful participation and we invite you to be in spiritual Communion with the Risen Lord who is present in Word and Sacrament, present among all of us who are the Body of Christ.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

Entrance Processional

1. For all the saints who from their labours rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be for ever blest.
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
2. Thou wast their rock, their fortress and their might,
thou, Lord, their captain in the well fought fight;
thou in the darkness still their one true light.
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
3. But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day:
the saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of glory passes on his way.
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!
4. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost,
Hallelujah, Hallelujah!

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Preparation of the Gifts and Table

1. Jesus invites his saints
to meet around his board;
here pardon'd rebels sit, and hold communion with their Lord.

2. For food he gives his flesh,
he bids us drink his blood;
amazing favour, matchless grace
of our descending God!

3. Our heavenly father calls Christ and his members one;
we the young children of his love,
and he the first-born Son.

4. We are but several parts of the same broken bread;
one body has its several limbs,
but Jesus is the head.

5. Let all our powers be joined his glorious name to raise;
pleasure and love fill every mind
and every voice be praise.

Text: Isaac Watts

Tune: ST MICHAEL; William Crotch 1775-1847, abridged from 'Psalm 101' in the 'Genevan Psalter', 1551

Communion Motet

Litanei aus das Fest Allerseelen, D. 343

Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

May all souls rest in peace; those whose fearful torment is past; those whose sweet dreams are over; those sated with life, those barely born, who have left this world: may all souls rest in peace! The souls of girls in love, whose tears are without number, who, abandoned by a faithless lover, rejected the blind world. May all who have departed hence, may all souls rest in peace! And those who never smiled at the sun, who lay awake beneath the moon on beds of thorns, so that they might one day see God face to face in the pure light of heaven: may all who have departed hence, may all souls rest in peace!

(Johann Georg Jacobi 1740-1814, trans. Richard Wigmore)
